<sup>1</sup> The Commerce Department (“Commerce”) rescinded the administrative reviews of the AD and CVD orders on Brazil, covering imports from ArcelorMittal Brasil S.A., Siderurgica Norte Brasil S.A., Sinobras, Villares Metals S.A., and Votorantim Siderurgia during October 1, 2016, through September 30, 2017 (AD order) and calendar year 2016 (CVD order). Commerce took this action when the requests for review were withdrawn.

<sup>2</sup> There are currently two pending administrative reviews of this order. The first covers imports from Deacero S.A. de C.V., ArcelorMittal las Truchas/Mexico S.A. de C.V., and Ternium Mexico S.A. de C.V. during October 1, 2016, through September 30, 2017. Commerce announced its preliminary results on November 14, 2018: dumping margins of 17.65% for Deacero and 40.52% for Ternium. Commerce found that ArcelorMittal made no shipments during the period of review. The final results in this review are due on April 23, 2019. The second review covers imports from Deacero, ArcelorMittal, Ternium, Grupo Villacero, and Talleres y Aceros, during October 1, 2017, through September 30, 2018. Commerce is expected to announce its preliminary results by the end of 2019.
